Terms & Conditions

Enrolment Fee ($250 per course)

All AVLC students must pay a non-refundable enrolment fee. This fee should be paid with the first tuition fee.

Due Date for Fees

The Enrolment fee, and first instalment of your tuition fee are due and payable upon receiving your Letter of Offer if you would like your CoE straight away. You are more than welcome to take your Letter of Offer home and make your payment before your course start date.

Payment Details

Payment via bank deposit should be forwarded to:
Account name: Australian Vocational Learning Centre
BSB Number 082 778
Account number 17 047 1606
Bank: National Australia Bank
Swift Code: NATAAU3302S

Tuition fees can also be paid by cash deposit at the college, internet transfer or EFTPOS. Students will not be issued a Certificate or Statement of Attainment while fees are still owing.

Late Payment Fee

A late payment fee of $200 will be applied to your account if you are five days overdue and a $400 charge if you are 10 days overdue.

Refund of Fee

When a student applies for but is unable to obtain a Student Visa through no fault of their own, all tuition fees paid will be refunded in full.

Notification of withdrawal must be in writing. When a student withdraws from a course refunds will apply as follows:

- Notification at least 10 weeks before commencement date, 90% of tuition fees paid will be refunded.
- Notification at least five weeks before commencement date, 70% of fees paid will be refunded.
- Notification of four weeks before and after commencement of course there will be no refund.

If AVLC withdraws an offer, fails to provide the program offered or terminates an education service:

- Before the commencement date, all tuition fees paid will be refunded in full.
- After the commencement date, a refund, pro rata, of the unearned portion of the term's fees paid.

If AVLC withdraws a student from an education service because the student has seriously breached the international student visa conditions or the rules of AVLC, no refund of the term's fees paid will be given and not less than 50% of fees applicable to a subsequent term will be refunded.

This agreement does not remove the right to take further action under Australia's consumer protection laws.

Complaints

In the event of a dispute between an individual student and AVLC, a complaints policy and procedure are in place to facilitate a resolution to the matter.

The Complaints policy does not circumscribe the student's right to pursue other legal remedies.

The Complaints policy is published in the AVLC International Student Handbook that can be download from www.avlc.edu.au/forms

Change of Personal Details

Students must notify AVLC within seven days about any changes to their street address, mobile phone numbers and email addresses. This can be done through student services or RTO Manager.

Course Progression and Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance is a requirement for all students. International students must attend a minimum of 80% of classes for the duration of their course. If students fail to meet this requirement their enrolment with AVLC will be cancelled and the student will be reported to DHA and their visa may be cancelled.

If students do not make satisfactory course progress (more than 50%) they will have to attend counselling with Student Services. If the student fails to meet the progress subsequently they will be reported to DHA and their visa may be cancelled.

Re-assessment Policy

Students are offered the opportunity to re-sit an assessment task that they have not performed satisfactorily on. The student is offered two such opportunities. The first re-assessment is free of charge. The second re-sit will incur a fee

Where a student has not achieved a satisfactory result in the third attempt of an assessment/assignment task and has therefore been deemed Not Yet Competent in the entire unit of competency the option of re-training and assessment for the entire unit of competency will be offered.

There are limited options available for the retraining and assessment of a unit. Students will be provided an individual plan of how this option will be delivered and, if acceptable to the student, the student will be required to sign off on the plan.

English & Entry Requirements

- 18 years of age or older
- Completed an overseas equivalent of Year 12
- Students must meet Visa Entry Requirements
- Proficient in English International students require either an
 - IELTS level of 5.5 or
 - TOEFL 527 (paper based) or
 - TOEFL 46 (internet based) or
 - Pearson Test of English Academic (PTE) 43
- To be able to read and comprehend course requirements
- Have an intermediate to advanced level of understanding of computers and internet

Evidence in the form of original or certified documents must be provided upon registration.

Courses are delivered in English which includes technical and specific terms. Students having an English problem should inform AVLC.

Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC)

As a condition of your student visa all students are required to hold Overseas Student Health Cover for the duration of their stay in Australia. OSHC must be in place prior to the issuing of a Confirmation of Enrolment (CoE). Bupa can be found at <http://oshc.bupa.com.au>

Financial Capacity Requirements

At time of application students are required to provide evidence of their financial capacity to have sufficient funds during their stay in Australia to cover both living expenses and study costs for 12 months.

Changing Courses

Under SSVF all students are required to maintain enrolment with a course of study at the same or high AQF level for which their visa is granted.

If you are thinking about changing your course of study to a lower level AQF course would be a breach of visa conditions and might result in the Student Visa being cancelled.

To change to a lower level AQF course you must apply to DHA of a new visa and to be granted a new visa before changing.

Transfer between Providers

Subject to the Student Transfer Policy, AVLC reserves the right to refuse an application for a letter of release permitting a transfer to another registered training provider prior to the completion of the initial six months of the student's principal course.

Permission to Work

If you and your family members are granted student visas you will be allowed to work up to 40 hours per fortnight once your course has commenced. Neither you nor your family members may commence work until the principal visa holder has commenced studying.

While the course you are studying is in session you cannot work more than 40 hours per fortnight. No work limits apply during recognised periods of vacation offered by your education provider. Family members will be allowed to work up to 40 hours per fortnight throughout the year.

Change of Services

AVLC reserves the right to change their services it offers including changes to prices, courses, facilitates and dates of courses where circumstances beyond AVLC's control necessitate such changes.

Incorrect, Incomplete or Misleading Information

AVLC has the right to vary or revise any decision regarding this application if information provided is found to be incorrect, incomplete, misleading or fraudulent.

Recognition of Prior Learning and Credit Transfer

Students are encouraged to apply for RPL/CT as part of their application. Any such application for RPL/CT must be made within fourteen days of the commencement of their course for it to be considered. Successful application will have an impact on the duration of the course or course fees.

Applications made after the fourteen-day period at the commencement of the course will not be considered for course duration or fee reduction.

Unique Student Identifier

From 1st January 2015 all students are required to hold a USI number and provide this number to their registered training provider. AVLC is unable to issue qualifications to students without this number. Upon commencement of the course students are required to supply this number to AVLC.
